

BJ Mauldin is a career musician, church organist/pianist and children's choir director for over 35 years, and private piano teacher for over 15 years. BJ has taught children's choirs and directed children's musical theater productions both in churches and in the private sector. She currently maintains a private piano studio of 25 students.

She also accompanies high school UIL students of MISD and DISD, in particular Booker T. Washington School of the Arts, in annual State sponsored competitions.

As a classical pianist, she has performed with the Richardson Symphony Orchestra and the Mesquite Symphony Orchestra. Currently, she is both keyboardist for the Mesquite Symphony Orchestra and Vice-President of the MSOA.

CLASS PIANO

Fall 2009-2010

CLASS PIANO 2009-2010

- ∅ Would you like to give your child's IQ a 46% boost?
- ∅ Would you like for your child to score consistently higher on standardized tests throughout their educational career?
- ∅ Would you like your child's SAT scores at least 100 points higher, and 91 points higher on college entrance exams?
- ∅ Would you like for your child to have significant increases in their attention skills, fine motor skills, personal responsibility, most importantly, self-esteem?

Piano lessons can do all of these things for your child! These claims are supported by mountains of research.

The very best engineers and technical designers in the Silicon Valley industry are, nearly without exception, practicing musicians.
